Course title	Art and Culture in Croatia
Course code	193474
ECTS credits	2 ECTS
Contact hours	2 lecture + 1 seminar hours per week
Course content	Over the course of the semester, a systematic periodization is provided of artistic practices, styles, movements and phenomena in the visual arts in Croatia, starting from prehistoric cultures to contemporary art tendencies. An introduction is given to the most important monuments and protagonists, while works and artefacts are analysed within the socio-cultural context from/in which they originated. The various phenomena in the national history of art are viewed in the context of general Western art history, while specially focusing on interpreting the changing historical circumstances, trajectories of cultural transfer and ways of mediating forms and content that shaped a national art canon. Aside the lectures in classrooms, tours are taken of various museums, monuments and cultural institutions in Zagreb, so as to introduce (international) students to the cultural facilities at their disposal, and complement the practical tuition provided at art courses.
Learning outcomes	Upon completing the course and passing the exam, students shall: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - become familiar with the periodization of artistic practices, styles, art movements and phenomena in Croatia, starting from prehistorical cultures to the tendencies in contemporary art; - be acquainted with major monuments, works of art and artists from the national artistic canon; - be able to position the most important phenomena and protagonists from the national artistic canon within the wider framework of Western art history; - by becoming introduced with changing historical contexts, cultural transfers and mediations that shaped artistic practice in Croatia, international students will gain insight into what makes a national canon specific, and be able to apply this knowledge when critically examining their own local/national art phenomena, within the framework of Western art history; - over the course of their semester in Zagreb, international students will be introduced to and given a tour of major monuments, museums and other cultural institutions, while students of the Academy will be provided with another incentive to use the city's cultural infrastructure in their future studies and artistic practice.
Grading and evaluation	Students are expected to attend the course regularly, take an active part during the classes, write a 5-page paper and pass the oral exam upon the course's completion, based on the knowledge gained from the given reading and the lectures.
